

2026 Holiday Schedule

Normal business operations of Stillman College will be suspended on holidays that are approved by the President and published annually by the Department of Human Resources. Eligible employees who are not required to work will be excused on such holidays without charge to leave or loss of pay and will be paid at their regular rates. In the event eligible employees are required to work on a holiday, non-exempt employees will be given time off per current policy and exempt employees will be given equivalent time off.

For information on eligibility for Holiday Pay, please refer to the <https://stillman.edu/human-resources>
